Reports out of Iraq indicate that American Special Forces “advisers” have engaged ISIS in ground combat for the first time.

ISIS forces attacked an Iraqi Army outpost occupied by more than 100 Americans around 1 a.m. local time. The American forces responded “equipped with light and medium weapons, supported by F-18” fighter jets according to sources on the ground.

According to Shafaq News Iraq,

US troops have entered with its Iraqi partner, according to Colonel, Salam Nazim in line against ISIS elements and clashed with them for more than two hours, to succeed in removing them from al-Dolab area, and causing losses in their ranks, at a time American fighter jets directed several strikes focused on ISIS gatherings that silenced their heavy sources of fire. He points out that the clashes took place between 1 a.m. and 3 a.m.

A field commander told reporters that the Americans were able to inflict heavy casualties on ISIS while suffering no casualties of their own while forcing the terror group back to their base some 10 kilometers away.

Sheikh Mahmud Nimrawi, a prominent tribal leader in the region, said that "US forces intervened because of ISIS started to come near the base, which they are stationed in so out of self-defense, they responded, welcoming the US intervention, which I hope will not be the last."

The Sheikh continued, "We have made progress in al-Dolab area, in which ISIS has withdrawn from to the villages beyond, after the battles which involved a private American force , and provided a great impetus firearm, and opened hubs around the region enabled them to storm and surprise ISIS fighters".

The short version is that ISIS attacked a base where more than 100 Special Forces "advisers" are stationed and took a two hour beating from both the air and the ground while the good guys took no casualties.

You have absolutely no idea what you are talking about. Yes, Joint Chiefs who are ultimately the decision makers. The PC decisions. We cannot chase the enemy because we are cut off. We cannot initiate engagements, only defend ourselves when fired at.

As for you being against a muslim president.. You're no better because of your less than reliable understanding of their religion.

Yes he is, and if you can not see that you are Special Forces group recently and the S.F. group, causing them to retreat back to their base 100% sympathetic to ISIS he would have allowed them out so they will not try that again. Why anywhere? If we are at war with them we must show their ugly heads. If we had a C.I.C other we could eradicate them in a very short time. And yes (
